The Yacht Club Italiano is the longest established sailing club in Italy and one of the oldest in the Mediterranean. It was founded in Genoa in 1879 and currently has approximately 1100 Members. The Club began towards the end of the 19th century when the larger than life Vittorio Augusto Vecchi (known as Jack la Bolina) and a group of sailing enthusiasts, including His Majesty King Umberto I, founded the Royal Yacht Club Italiano. Since its inaugural regatta on 8 August 1880, when 177 boats competed in the Gulf of La Spezia, the Yacht Club Italiano's aims have always been to promote the sport of yachting, organise national and international regattas, and instruct young people in the art of sailing.
