

Terms and Conditions

By being a member of Kununurra Taekwondo Inc, you agree to the following:

- The student/s is/are medically and physically capable of undertaking regular Taekwondo sessions.
- Fees are to be paid on time at the beginning of each term. Students who have not paid by the end of week 2, will not be allowed to train
- Students are not to engage in the teaching of Taekwondo in any form or any purpose without the written authority of Lead Instructor of Kununurra Taekwondo Inc.
- Students are only to use Taekwondo as a legitimate form of self-defense for ourselves or our family or friends when there is no other way of defending ourselves or our family or friends.
- The committee of Kununurra Taekwondo Inc retain the right to reject any application to train or to suspend, remove and/or expel any students not following the directions and instructions of Instructors.
- Students will abide by decisions made by instructors and officials Taekwondo training, sparring, tournaments and Gradings, and follow all rules and regulations of Taekwondo as set out by Kununurra Taekwondo Inc.
- Students agree to follow all rules and regulations of Taekwondo as set out by Kununurra Taekwondo Inc.
- Students can only participate in Grading through recommendation by the Instructors of Kununurra Taekwondo, or the Master Instructors of Chungdokwan if Grading for a black belt dan level. This recommendation will only be made when the following requirements have been met: the expected level of Taekwondo skill, consistently appropriate behaviour (observing the student oath and the tenets of

- Taekwondo), participation in the required number of training/sparring sessions for current belt rank.
- Students will only be awarded a promotion in belt/level if the required standards at a properly conducted Grading held by the Dan level required as set out by the World Taekwondo Federation and the Kukkiwon.
- If transferring from another School/ club, proof of the existing rank/ belt level has to be verified by an instructor (sighting and verification of the most recent Gup certificate or Kukkiwon Dan certificate).
- I will indemnify the Club, its Instructors, Members and/or Guests against any action which includes suit, either at law or inequity in respect to any loss, injury or damage that I might, or that might be cause to, or suffered by my offspring or ward, as a result of attending any of the Club's activities, including Training, Demonstrations, Functions or Competitions.