

CODES OF CONDUCT

It is vital that everyone involved in sporting activities, whether they are athletes, coaches, parents, officials or supporters understand their responsibilities to ensure that all participants enjoy the sport.

The codes of conduct below have been incorporated into FFV Rules of Competition and all members of our club including spectators and parents are to abide by these codes of conduct.

This Policy applies to FFA, FFV, Member Federations, District Associations, Competition Administrators, Clubs, Officials, Agents and Players. To the fullest extent possible, it also applies to parents and guardians of Players and to Spectators at Matches. This Policy will continue to apply to a person, even after they have stopped their association or employment with NCMJFC, if disciplinary action against that person has commenced.

PLAYERS' CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

- Play by the Rules and within the spirit of the game;
- Do not argue with or abuse any match official. Match officials are not required to offer an explanation for any decision that they make.
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials or other players, deliberately distracting or provoking another person is not acceptable or permitted in any sport;
- Maintain your focus and work hard for yourself and your team;
- Be a good sport and be prepared to acknowledge good play whether it is from your team or the opposition;
- Treat all players as you would like to be treated. Do not interfere with, bully or take unfair advantage of another player;
- Cooperate with your coach, team mates and opponents. Without them, there would be no competition;
- Play for your own enjoyment, and not just to please parents and coaches;
- Remove all jewellery prior to training and match play, as it is a hazard to you and those around you;
- Do not accept or use any banned or unauthorised drug(s), including the consumption of alcohol at any time.

DISCIPLINE POLICY

All players and parents are bound by the rules of conduct of our club and associations. A three strikes policy will apply.

- Player Breach 1: sit out training session + 1 match suspension.
- Player Breach 2: sit out 2 training sessions + 2 match suspension.
- Player Breach 3: suspension until seasons end.
- Parental Breach 1: Exclusion from the next match.
- Parental Breach 2 or failure to comply with Breach 1 penalty: Suspension of player from the club until seasons end.

PARENTS' CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

- Remember that children play the sport for their enjoyment, and not yours;
- Encourage children to play according to the rules and spirit of the game;
- Encourage all children to participate, do not force them;
- Focus on the child's efforts and performance rather than the result of the activity (that is, winning or losing);
- Encourage children to always participate according to the rules;
- Never ridicule, yell at a child for making a mistake or losing a game;
- Remember that children learn best by example, so applaud good play by both teams;
- Support all efforts to remove racial and religious vilification, verbal and physical abuse from sporting activities;
- Respect the match official's decisions and teach your child to do likewise; Do not argue with or abuse any match official. Match officials are not required to offer an explanation for any decision that they make.
- Show respect and appreciation to Club officials, including coaches, officials and administrators. Ensure any issues are raised through the correct channels;
- 'Smart Supporting' - not loud and intense but calm, relaxed and at all times positive;
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion;
- Do not smoke or consume alcohol near the team bench (Technical Area) or within 3m of the sideline.

- Do not intimidate, harass or use foul language towards, players, match officials, Club Officials or spectators.
- Do not smoke or consume alcohol near the team bench (Technical Area) or within 3m of the sideline.

COACHES' CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

- Remember that players participate for the fun of it and that winning is not everything;
- Be reasonable in your demands on younger players time, energy and enthusiasm,
- Teach your players to abide by the Rules and Laws of the Game;
- Ensure that equipment and facilities meet a reasonable safety standard and are appropriate to the age and ability of the players;
- Modify your approach to suit the skill levels and needs of players;
- Develop and enhance respect between players, opposition coaches and the decisions of the match official;
- Follow the advice of a physician when determining the extent of a player's injury

- Keep up to date with the latest coaching practices (refer to Coach Accreditation Criteria);
- Take time out to teach players (& others) the Laws of the Game, hence raising their awareness;
- Remind all players to play within the spirit of the game at all times;
- Ensure players are good sports and ensure each team member shakes the hand of their opponents at the conclusion of every match;
- Do not smoke or consume alcohol from the team bench (Technical Area) or sideline;
- Remember the actions of yourself and your team is reflective of the perception others take away with them.

ADMINISTRATOR'S CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

- Help coaches and officials highlight appropriate behaviour and skill development, and assist in raising the standards of coaching and officiating;
- Ensure everyone involved in football emphasises fair play, and not winning at all costs;
- Be tolerant and calm under pressure and approach problem solving in a supportive manner as members and players will expect you to set an example for others;
- Make every effort to educate persons who breach these guidelines from time to time.

Training Policy

Every team that is training must have at least 2 adults in attendance, which includes the coach.

The reason being is if there are injuries to any team members , a player needs to go to the toilet or any other reason that would distract the coach from watching his team then there is another adult on hand to be responsible.

The coaches will be told that if there are not 2 adults in attendance then they can cancel training and send their team home.

Yes, it really is that important. We only have your child's safety and security in mind and so should you too.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO REPORT A BREACH OF THE CODES PLEASE DO SO BY EMAILING THE MAIN CLUB EMAIL ADDRESS.

All reports will be handled confidentially by the current MPP officer.
