

Bringing boating to the community

WYC Code of Conduct

Wynyard Yacht Club Inc endorses the following Code of Conduct for its members. We expect that as a member, you will observe the following during any Club activity, presence on site or social media discussion:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others;
- Be fair, equitable, considerate and honest in your dealings with others;
- Acknowledge the principals of diversity and inclusion;
- Be professional and take responsibility for your actions;
- Use club facilities and equipment for their proper purpose and correctly care for and maintain them while reporting damage;
- Acknowledge that many do work for the club do so in a voluntary capacity and deserve to be treated respectfully;
- Preserve and protect the standing and reputation of the Club;
- Refrain from doing anything which may reasonably be considered abuse, intimidation, or harassment of others.

As a member, you are responsible for your conduct of your guests whilst at the Club.

Breaches of this code of Conduct may result in a complaint to the Management Committee.

More detailed information about appropriate conduct can be found in the Clubs Constitution, Policies and Procedures available on the WYC website.

Approved by Management Committee

10 June 2021